

Kellega sa hommikul kõige esimesena räägid?

Who is the first person you talk to in the morning?

Krista: Esimesena räägin ma tavaliselt oma kõige väiksema lapsega, kes on kaheksa-aastane. Tema ärkab kõige varem üles, kuigi ta kooli ei lähe kõige varem.

The first one I usually talk to is my youngest child, who is eight years old. He wakes up the earliest, although he doesn't go to school the earliest.

Mihkel: Ma räägin oma elukaaslasega. Esimese asjana ma ütlen talle tavaliselt, mis kell on. Ja siis ma küsin, kas ta tahab, et ma teen talle kohvi.

I talk to my girlfriend. The first thing I usually tell her is the time. And then I say would she like me to make coffee for her.

Aleksandr: No sel ajal, kui mina tõusen, naine magab, sest ta töötab kodus. Ta tõuseb natuke hiljem kui mina. Kui mina lähen tööle, siis tema just ärkab. Ma ei räägigi hommikul kellegagi, mulle meeldib selline vaikus.

Well at that time my wife sleeps because she works at home, and therefore she wakes up a bit later than I. And when I leave, she kind of wakes right then. So I don't talk really with someone in the morning, I like that kind of silence.

Kellega sa eile õhtul kõige viimasena rääkisid? Mida sa ütlesid?

Who did you talk to last in the evening? What did you say?

Kiur: Rääkisin oma emaga. Head ööd!

With my mother. Good night!

Krista: Ma arvan, et ma rääkisin eile viimati oma abikaasaga. Ma arvan, et ma ütlesin talle „Head ööd!“.

I guess the last one I spoke to was my husband. I guess that I told him “Good night!”

Aleksandr: Ikka oma naisega rääkisin. Ma rääkisin sellest, et ma olen natuke väsinud ja et mul on palju tööd. Ja siis lõpus ütlesin talle: „Musi-musi, kalli-kalli!“, nagu ikka.

Well, with my wife again. I told about being a little tired and then lots of work, and then of course lots of kisses and lots of hugs, like always.